Second highest observation tower in Slovakia, Horné Lazy, Brezno

- After crossing 192 steps, you will reach a height of 39.6 meters, while you will be enchanted by beautiful panoramic views of the entire Low Tatras from Kráľova hoľa to Banská Bystrica, the royal city of Brezno, or Veporské hills
- You can reach the observation tower from several directions. Two routes lead to the tower from the town of Brezno, from the locality of Banisko, where tourists can also find a new field with fallow deer.
- An educational interactive walkway leads to the lookout tower, on which tourists can find, in addition to interesting information about the nature of the locality, wooden sculptures of animals living in the forests of Horné Lazy. Tourists can hear the voices of the forest even better thanks to a huge wooden megaphone.
